

Douglas Ichiuji was born in Washington D.C., to Japanese American Nisei Joseph Ichiuji and Asako Tsuda Ichiuji.

With more than 30 years of progressive management positions in Government and industry, Doug has held senior leadership roles at the U.S. Department of Treasury, Visa Inc, and U.S. Bank.

Career highlights at Treasury include implementing complex financial transaction programs including the IRS Lockbox Network, for which he received the Presidential Quality Achievement Award from George H.W. Bush; directing multi-agency management and cost saving initiatives while serving on Vice President Al Gore’s National Performance Review Team, earning the “Secretary’s Award” from Treasury Secretary Lloyd Bentsen; and as North America Public Sector Head at U.S. Bank, winning over 60% of the U.S. Federal Government’s charge card business.

Mr. Ichiuji attended the University of Maryland and Harvard University. He is proud to serve on the board of the National Japanese American Memorial Foundation and serves as Chairman of the Phil Ramone Orchestra for Children based in New York.

Hobbies include real estate development, flying an airplane, and playing the drums (music preferences, stuck in the 70’s).
