

Jason I. Kuroiwa serves as an independent consultant and executive advisor. Following in his family's service and sacrifice from World War II to Vietnam, Jason is a U.S. Army veteran with over 25 years of global experience in leadership and staff roles at all levels.

He is passionate about informing and educating communities about challenges from our past to prevent a repeat in our future.

Jason also serves on the board of the Japanese American Veterans Association (JAVA), the Advisory Committee on Veterans Employment, Training, and Employer Outreach (ACVETEO) for the U.S. Department of Labor, and Supervisory Committee for the Sea West Coast Guard Federal Credit Union. He is honored to serve on the board of the National Japanese American Memorial Foundation. He has served legendary units such as the 82nd Airborne Division, 3d Cavalry Regiment, 2nd Infantry Division, and as a Diplomatic Liaison Officer in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Serving two tours in Iraq, Jason is a recipient of the Bronze Star Medal.

Jason is a graduate in Computer Science from the University of Hawai'i at Manoa and holds an MBA, MPA, and MA in HR Management and is credentialed as a Society for Human Resources Management Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP).

He is married to the former Lisa Osumi from Honolulu, Hawai'i. Lisa's family was incarcerated at Gila River.